

Monday

Monotheism, belief in the existence of one god. It is different from polytheism, the belief in the existence of many gods, and from atheism, the belief that there is no god. Monotheism characterizes the traditions of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam, and elements of the belief are discernible in numerous other religions.

1. What does monotheistic mean? _____

2. What does polytheistic mean? _____

3. What is the major difference between polytheistic and monotheistic? _____

4. What are the three major monotheistic religions in the world today? _____

Draw a picture of Monotheism and Polytheism

--	--

Tuesday

Judaism is the oldest monotheistic religion in the world. Judaism is characterized by a belief in one God who revealed himself to Abraham, Moses, and The Hebrew prophets and by a religious life in accordance with Scriptures called the Torah.

Identify 3 characteristics about Judaism and provide a title that summarizes what characteristic it is (Holy Book, Founder, Symbol, Size etc).

Symbol

What evidence from the text and religion supports the claim that Judaism is monotheistic? _____

Wednesday

Christianity, began at the life, teachings, and death of Jesus of Nazareth who they believe is God in the 1st century CE. It has become the largest of the world's religions and, geographically, the most widely spread of all faiths. It has more than two billion believers who study the religions sacred text, the Bible.

Identify 3 characteristics about Judaism and provide a title that summarizes what characteristic it is (Holy Book, Founder, Symbol, Size etc).

What evidence from the text and religion supports the claim that Judaism is monotheistic? _____

How a Judaism and Christianity similar?

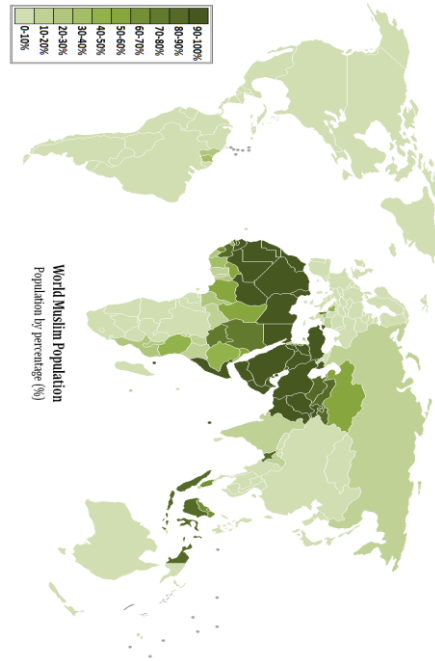

Thursday

Islam is the second largest monotheistic religion in the world. Islam was established in 7th century CE and follow the teaching of the Muhammad who wrote the Koran which followers of Islam, called Muslims, believe was given to Muhammad by their God called Allah.

What evidence from the text and religion supports the claim that Judaism is monotheistic? _____

How a Judaism, Christianity and Islam Similar ?

Friday

1. Describe the distribution (how spread out) the Islamic faith is around the world?
2. What continents have the most dense Islamic population?
3. Compare North America with Africa. What are the major differences?

Article for the Week

Monotheism, belief in the existence of one god. It is different from polytheism, the belief in the existence of many gods, and from atheism, the belief that there is no god. Monotheism characterizes the traditions of Judaism, Christianity, and Islam, and elements of the belief are discernible in numerous other religions

Judaism is the oldest monotheistic religion in the world. Judaism is characterized by a belief in one God who revealed himself to Abraham, Moses, and the Hebrew prophets and by a religious life in accordance with Scriptures called the Torah.

Christianity, began at the life, teachings, and death of Jesus of Nazareth who they believe is God in the 1st century CE. It has become the largest of the world's religions and, geographically, the most widely spread of all faiths. It has more than two billion believers who study the religions sacred text, the Bible.

Islam is the second largest monotheistic religion in the world. Islam was established in 7th century CE and follow the teaching of the Muhammad who wrote the Koran which followers of Islam, called Muslims, believe was given to Muhammad by their God called Allah.

